Boy Scouts

by Robert Fawcett and Tim Johnson

Boy Scouts are celebrating the anniversary of 102 years and The Eagle Scouts are celebrating their 100 year anniversary. Robert Fawcett is the Grand Columbia Council Scout Executive and Tim Johnson is the Apple Valley District Executive. As noticed in the meeting that Scouting has touched most everybody's life in way or another. The Boy Scouts of America provides a program for young people that builds character, trains them in the responsibilities of participating citizenship, and develops personal fitness. The Boy Scouts help to prepare our youth to become valuable young people. They are trained values and education to help them to become great leaders. The slogan is to "Do a good turn daily" and the motto is "Be Prepared."

Lord R.S.S. Baden Powell in 1907 wrote a book Aids to scouting that was a military book that was used to create the foundation for the Boy Scouts. In 1930, the Cub Scouts created the Pine Wood Derby that was used as a competition and also to have time working with your dad or mom. There are also many camps that these youths can participate in to meet other scouts. There are also many merit badges that help the scouts to gain more skills. Boy Scout training can also help teach leadership to adults that volunteer too. The Grand Columbia Council has 6 regions which includes 4,000 boys and 1,000 leaders. In 1980, there were 1 million Eagle Scouts, and in 2009 there are now 2 million Eagle Scouts. Out of all the Boy Scouts only about 4% make Eagle Scouts. It is accomplished by getting all 21 merit badges, doing something with leadership, planning and service plus move up the ranks. Boy Scouts are building bridges for the future. Tim Johnson also talked about how to pull together the community, create leaders, and also wanted to point out the volunteers are always needed. Thank you very much to the Boy Scouts for joining us and also for the Color Guard in participating in the song and Flag Salute. At the end of the meeting the Wenatchee Central Lions also donated $250 to Boy Scout Pack 183.
