18th Annual Law Enforcement Officer of the Year Awards Luncheon

The Greater Wenatchee Sunrise Lions Club is once again sponsoring the 18th Annual Law Enforcement Officer of the Year Awards Luncheon on Friday, May 14, 2010, at the Red Lion.

This event will be the official meeting for our club on Friday, May 14.

The purpose of this luncheon is a combination of recognition of one Law Enforcement Officer from each Law Enforcement Agency in the Valley for exemplary performance in 2009, and a Police Officer Memorial Ceremony to recognize National Peace Officer Memorial Day. This year the program will recognize Police Officers who have given the ultimate sacrifice for the past year and unfortunately seven lost their lives late in 2009 in the State of Washington.

The Keynote Speaker will be the Executive Director of the Washington Sheriffs and Police Chiefs Association Don Pierce, who will speak specifically about the tragic events that resulted in the recent law enforcement officers deaths and related activities.

Lunch for this off-site meeting at the Red Lion will be the ticket price of $15.00, and will be billed to those in attendance. It will not be necessary for our members to purchase individual tickets prior to the event. We encourage our members to come out a support Sunrise Lions and our Law Enforcement Officers, and be a part of this most meaningful Memorial Ceremony.

If you have additional questions please give Lion Tom Robbins a call.
