Washington Apple Education Foundation

by: Jennifer Witherbee

Washington Apple Education Foundation was started in 1994 to help with education in the tree fruit industry through scholarships and continuing support from the community.

They are a non-profit organization that relies on the community and the industry in supporting the great opportunities afforded to the many students through the scholarships and grant programs.

Most of the scholarships are awarded to kids coming from the industry. Each year the foundation increases the amount of scholarships provided just this year they provided over 150 scholarships totaling $425,000. Out of the 150 they received 421 applications. When the applications are received there are a about 60 volunteers that donate about 35 to 40 hours over one month to make the selection process. After the scholarships are awarded another bonus to this program is that many of the students they are connected with an industry member or past recipient to help them get through the first year of college. Along with the scholarships the foundation also offers grants to community and school recipients and to farm workers themselves for the community and family and industry education. So the foundation relies on community support for their funding. They have 2 major events that are their golf tournament one here in the Wenatchee Valley and one in Yakima and then the other big event is the Horticulture Association Event in their 14th year and they have a big raffle for a sprayer that gains a lot of funding. But overall their main support comes from members in the industry. Many in our community donate to this wonderful foundation either through personal donations to memorial donations. This organization supports other events and people in our community and is a great support structure for the tree fruit industry. If anyone is interested in learning more you can find them at www.waef.org.

Once again it was a great presentation and wonderful information. Thanks for joining us.
